Cold 'Cures' Not Good, FTC Says

Resistab, Anahist
Pills Hit In Charge
By Trade Commission

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP)—The Federal Trade Commission says that at least two so-called anti-cold drugs—those with the trade names "Resistab" and "Anahist"—do not measure up to their advertising claims and may even be harmful.

Manufacturers of both disputed the statement.

The government agency made its complaint yesterday following a government investigation of the effectiveness of antihistamine preparations in preventing or treating common colds.

In an outspoken charge that "false and misleading" advertising is being used to promote the sale of both "Resistab" and "Anahist," FTC alleged:

"The products are neither cures, preventatives nor adequate or competent treatments for the common cold or its manifestations."

The Trade Commission complaint was directed at Bristol-Myers Co. and the Anahist Co. Inc., both of New York. Under federal law, FTC has power to force the companies to halt or revise advertising claims if the government can prove the "false and misleading" complaint.

The Bristol-Myers product is "Resistab." The Anahist Company's preparation is called "Anahist." Both have been extensively advertised.

Spokesmen for Bristol-Myers and Anahist, in separate statements, called the FTC's complaint erroneous and said the Federal Food and Drug Administration had cleared their products for sale.

"Every advertising claim we have made is backed by clinical evidence," said Anahist. Similarly, Bristol-Myers said: "All advertising of Resistab has been based upon thorough clinical and scientific investigation."

The FTC served notice that it probably won't stop with the initial complaints, that other companies in the field are under scrutiny.

A statement said the charges "are the first to emerge from an investigation of advertising claims for antihistamine products." The probe is continuing, FTC asserted, and "additional complaints will be issued where the evidence warrants."

Not only did the agency attack the value of the products in combatting colds, it also alleged that: "Contrary to the claims of the respondents, both Resistab and Anahist, taken as directed, may be unsafe and produce injury or harm to the user."

No elaboration was made, however, on this fact of FTC's charges. The agency went on elsewhere to challenge a claim of "Resistab" that "side reactions" would not result from use of that preparation.

Attic Fire Damages Czecho-Slovak Club

A serious fire in the attic of the Czecho-Slovak Club at 313 S. Ellsworth ave. was battled for an hour Monday afternoon before being brought under control by the fire department.

The blaze inflicted heavy damage to the attic and roof rafters before it was extinguished. Firemen, who moved into the attic through a small aperture, had to chop holes in the roof for ventilation. Some of the second floor rooms were damaged by water.

Chief Vincent Malloy said the fire had gained good headway by the time the department reached the club.

The fire was started when sparks from a torch, being used to dry the roof on the club's new addition went under the eaves of the old building roof.

Firemen were called at 2:02 and left the scene at 3:10 p. m.

The office was entered by breaking the glass in the rear of office door. The desks and filing cabinets were ransacked and the $15 in bills was taken. The thieves left by the west door. They overlooked a quantity of money in the office.

Wherry Attacks Sec. Acheson

Says No. 1 Diplomat Is Truman's 'Hand'

WASHINGTON, March 21—An attack by Senator Wherry (R-Neb) spearheaded today an apparent Republican drive to make a political campaign issue of Secretary of State Acheson and his policies.

In the face of Republican suggestions that Acheson resign, President Truman made it clear yesterday through an aide he is sticking by his Secretary of State and approves the cabinet member's conduct and policies.

Wherry, long-time critic of Acheson, said in a speech prepared for a founders' day celebration in Lincoln, Neb., that Acheson is "undermining our national economy and losing the peace."

"Secretary of State Dean Acheson is the most powerful man in the government today," Wherry declared. "The voice is the voice of President Truman, but the hand is the hand of Dean Acheson."

"Apparently he has become so powerful, as the idol of left-wing, appease-Russia agitators that President Truman is fearful, should he fire Acheson, he will lose the support of this radical, socialist pressure group in the coming elections and in 1952."

Two other Republicans, Reps. Byrnes of Wisconsin and Werdel of California, assailed Acheson yesterday in House speeches for his role in allowing Valentin Gubitchev, convicted Russian spy, to leave this country and escape a 15-year prison term.

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), who has accused the State Department of harboring Communists, has suggested that President Truman get rid of Acheson. However, an influential Republican who asked not to be quoted by name, said the GOP will be just as well satisfied if the Secretary of State remains on the job.

"He will be our best issue in this year's campaign," this Republican told a reporter.

Wherry, the party's Senate floor leader, said Acheson and Alger Hiss, convicted former State Department official, "have been joint architects of many schemes that have run our foreign relations into the ditch until today even little countries like Bulgaria and Hungary trample upon our rights."

Republicans have jumped on Acheson for saying he would not turn his back on Hiss and some Democrats, including Senate Majority Leader Lucas, of Illinois, have said they won't defend Acheson's statement.

Inspection Refused State At Pettibone

Doorman, Lawyer
Tells Inspectors
'Nuts' Last Night

CHARDON, March 21—(AP)—State officials served another 48-hour closing order on the Pettibone Club last night, but they didn't get inside for an inspection.

James D. Nolan, special assistant to Albert A. Woldman, state director of industrial relations, said about 600 to 700 patrons were at the club when a doorman denied their request to enter for an inspection.

After persistent requests, the man at the door brought the club's attorney, Leonard Danaceau. Nolan and four others in his party repeated their requests, and finally, according to Nolan, got this reply from Danaceau:

"As that general said at Bastogne, 'nuts.'"

The state officials then tried to get a justice-of-the-peace warrant charging two clubmen with "obstructing a request to make a recognized, lawfully constituted inspection of the premises." After a long search, they found a JP, but reported he refused to cooperate.

The state is trying to close the Pettibone Club as a gambling center and based its 48-hour shut-up order on alleged violations of the state building code. The state inspectors issued a similar 48-hour ultimatum Saturday, but allowed a 48-hour extension. Attorney Reuben Sacharow said, to plug legal loopholes and "make an ironclad case."

Common Pleas Judge Black C. Cook of Geauga county last week refused an injunction which the state sought to close the club on grounds it was a public nuisance and violated the building code in six ways.

Calcutta School Project Picketed

EAST LIVERPOOL, March 21—(AP)—Sheriff Howard Clark and deputies were called today to the new Calcutta school project, where laborers Local 809 of Steubenville have been picketing in efforts to organize workers.

The Madden Construction Co. of East Palestine, which holds the $72,000 contract, asked the sheriff's intervention.

The sheriff said there was no disturbance. Work was halted while union bricklayers conferred with labor's local agent, Drexel Thrash of Steubenville. The sheriff said the bricklayers questioned the legitimacy of the picketing local.

Frank Kovalchik, laborers business agent, said at Steubenville that the NLRB recognizes the union's jurisdiction in five counties, including Columbiana.

Committee's Action Flayed By Senator

Administration, ECA
Officials Fight Against Proposal

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP)—Senator Connally (D-Texas) predicted today that Congress will reject a move to substitute $1,000,000,000 worth of U. S. surplus farm products for cash in the European Recovery Program.

The House foreign affairs committee voted the shift from money to farm products yesterday in the face of strong administration protests.

Connally, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, told reporters the substitution move would fail as he called his committee into session to consider the aid program.

The Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA) has asked a $2,950,000,000 authorization plus the right to spend $150,000,000 which will be left over from the current year.

Senator Connally appeared confident his committee would approve the entire cash amount asked by the Administration.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said he will ask for a roll-call vote on his amendment to trim $600,000,000 off the authorization.

The farm products-for-cash amendment in the House committee came from Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio).

Vorys said that in the past the Secretary of Agriculture has furnished only $115,000,000 of government surpluses out of a total ECA food program costing over $2,400,000,000.

"There is no excuse now for using new funds to buy more agricultural products for a government program, when we already own and have paid for this gigantic surplus," he said.

Chairman Kee (D-WVA), who opposed Vorys' proposal, said in his opinion the bill "doesn't save anything."

In the first place, Kee contended, it puts an added burden on the farm price support program by taking a billion dollars worth of ECA purchasing power out of the open market. He said it also ties the hands of the ECA.

ECA officials are opposing the move, also. They argue it would support Communist claims that Europe is being used as a dumping ground for American surplus farm production and would hamper recovery efforts.

County Health Board Budget Shows Increase

LISBON, March 21—The annual appropriations resolution of the Columbiana County Board of Health filed today with County Auditor Irving J. Vorndran by County Health Commissioner Dr. Robert M. Dunlap represents an increase of approximately $11,500 above the 1949 budget.

The increase, which totals $38,175 is explained by Dr. Dunlap as representing salaries for a plumbing inspector, a health educator, a veterinarian and travel expenses.

The appropriations resolution of the County Health Board as submitted includes: Salary of health commissioner, $9,000; salary of public health nurse, $2,580; salaries of other nurses and employees, $15,300; expenses of nurses and other employees, $7,080; expenses of board members, $240; medical supplies, $150; stationery and office supplies, $1,250; other expenses, $750; equipment, $500; public employees retirement, $750; workmen's compensation, $75; and unanticipated emergencies, $500.

HOLLYWOOD, March 21—(AP)—Actor Edward Arnold says he's considering running for the Republican nomination as U. S. Senator.

When asked to comment on the coincidence that his current role in the movies is that of a senatorial candidate, Arnold gave forth with "Heh, heh, heh."

Already in the race are Sheridan Downey, incumbent, and Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas, both Democrats, and Rep. Richard Nixon, Republican.

McCarthy Names 'No. 1' Red

Has Given 'Man's'
Name To Committee

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP)—Senator McCarthy said today he has handed Senate investigators "the name of the man" connected with the State Department — whom I consider the top Russian espionage agent in this country.

The Wisconsin Republican made the statement to newsmen. Reports circulated meanwhile that the State Department is urging President Truman to open FBI and all other government loyalty files to the Senate committee looking into McCarthy's charges there are Communists in the Department.

The "top Russian agent" was described by McCarthy as Alger Hiss' one-time boss "in the espionage ring in the Department." Hiss, former State Department official, has been convicted on a charge that he lied in denying he handed secret U. S. documents to a courier for Russia.

McCarthy's statement was prompted by another one made at a news conference late yesterday by Senator Tydings (D-Md.). Tydings is chairman of the Senate foreign relations subcommittee which is looking into McCarthy's contentions that there are 57 card-carrying Communists in the State Department.

"Up to the present time," Tydings declared, "neither Senator McCarthy nor anyone else has given us the name of a single person who is accused of being a Communist or a card-carrying Communist."

Since the inquiry started on March 8 McCarthy has publicly accused nine persons of being pro-Communist or otherwise bad security risks. He has turned over 106 other names to the committee for study behind closed doors.

Tydings said McCarthy has not lodged definite charges against anyone on the list of 106.

Mr. Truman, who is vacationing in Florida, is faced with making a decision on whether to let Senators on the inquiry committee examine the loyalty records of persons whom McCarthy has accused.

A particularly knotty problem for the President is whether the records of the FBI and the civil service loyalty review board should be made available—or just the State Department loyalty records. He has refused in the past to let congressional committees at any such records.

Red Cross Drive Hits $12,302

Efforts Redoubled
For Goal Of $14,893

With $12,301.89 reported by Red Cross fund drive workers Monday afternoon, the campaign directors and team members are redoubling efforts to reach Salernites not yet contacted to secure the balance toward the goal of $14,893.

Chairman Bob Engel said all teams have made partial reports but additional funds are anticipated from the special gifts and the house-to-house teams.

Mr. Engel said the campaign is further ahead money-wise now than in 1949 at this stage of the drive, but the last few thousand dollars is always the slowest in being reported.

The figures reported yesterday includes both cash and pledges. Anyone who has not been contacted is asked to make contributions through the mail to the Red Cross Chapter office in the Memorial building.

Alliance Moves To Get More Water

ALLIANCE, March 21—The first concrete effort to secure a new source of water supply for Alliance was taken by city council Monday night when it voted to acquire 95 acres of land at the Deer Creek site in Lexington Township as the city's eventual new water outlet.

Under suspension of rules council voted to buy the land from the heirs of Caleb Arner for a price not to exceed $100 an acre. Although a total of 409 acres must be secured to start the anticipated million-dollar water project, Monday night's action was the first specific land purchased after years of talk, planning and surveying.

Council made sure that the sale would not lack for finances by passing an accompanying ordinance appropriating $25,000 from the water fund to the capital improvement fund.

Scholarship Group Discusses Activities

Activities of the Salem Community Scholarship Association were discussed at a meeting of the board of trustees last night at the High School. The meeting was presided over by J. R. Moore, president.

Reports were given on loans made to students now in college and reports from the schools on the scholastic progress of these students were read.

The membership committee reported only a 25 per cent return on requests for annual contributions to the local scholarship fund which aids worthy high school seniors seeking to further their education. Qualifications of new applicants were discussed.

The trustees will meet again May 15. Besides Moore, they include John Hochadel, Carl Willman, E. L. Kerr and H. W. Cameron.

Dr. Sander Has New Problem

Mercy Killing Issue Up To County Society,

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 21—(AP)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander has a new hurdle to clear before he can return to good standing in New Hampshire's medical profession.

Dr. Lloyd L. Wells, secretary of the Hillsboro County Medical Society, disclosed last night that a charge had been filed with the organization against the young country doctor.

The State Board of Registration in medicine already has a hearing pending to determine Dr. Sander's right to continue the practice of medicine. The hearing will be held April 12.

The disclosure that a charge had been filed came a few hours after two Catholic hospitals announced Dr. Sander had been banned from practicing in the institutions.

The 41-year-old physician was acquitted March 9 of murder in the death of Mrs. Abbie C. Borroto, 59, a cancer-ridden patient. In announcing that the County Society had been called upon to take action, Dr. Wells said:

"A charge has been made against Dr. Hermann N. Sander. The Hillsboro County Medical Society's constitution and by-laws govern all procedures. No further official comment will be made until these procedures are completed."

The nature of the charge was not disclosed.

The county group's constitution provides that charges may be preferred "by reason of (1) criminal offense, (2) gross misconduct as a citizen or physician, or (3) violation of the society's by-laws."

Dr. Sander was not available for comment. Members of his legal staff had nothing to say. Under the society's rules of procedure, the next step would be submission of the complaint to the group's board of censors.

The board of three doctors can recommend (1) Dr. Sander be reprimanded, (2) that he be exonerated of the charge, or (3) that he be expelled from the society.

Four Die From Wood Alcohol

Cleveland Police Hold Vagrant 'Mixer'

CLEVELAND, March 21—(AP)—Four men have died in the past two days from what police believe was the drinking of poisoned alcohol.

Three of the victims died last night. The earlier death already has been blamed by Coroner Samuel R. Gerber on wood alcohol.

Held by law agents today was a 50-year-old vagrant who police think brewed the fatal mixture. Two policemen, disguised as bearded bums, arrested him yesterday after paying him 91 cents for two pints of "smoke," a cheap alcoholic mixture.

They claim he admitted preparing batches of the stuff in "skid row" alleys and peddling it.

First in the series of deaths was that of Columbus Martin, 42-year-old Cleveland. His body was found behind the Hippodrome annex building on the southeast side. His pockets had been looted and personal belongings strewn about.

Dr. Gerber's autopsy showed wood alcohol poisoning caused Martin's death.

Last night, George Hill, 50, also of southeast Cleveland, was picked up in a coma in the city's downtown business district, near where Martin was found. He was dead when brought to Charity Hospital. Physicians there said there was a strong indication of wood alcohol.

Hill had found Martin's body and had been drinking with him. Two other men, Sam Chaney, 42, northeast Cleveland, and Johnny Allen, 32, arrested by police for intoxication and vagrancy respectively, collapsed in their cells and died before reaching the hospital.

In serious condition in City Hospital prison ward were still two more men, George Steinmeyer, 69, and John Liggins, 50. Both were arrested Sunday on charges of intoxication.

Ohio Edisons Consolidated Earnings Show Rise In '49

Total kilowatt hour sales of electricity in 1949 to customers of Ohio Edison Co. and its subsidiaries, the Ohio Public Service Co., and Pennsylvania Power Co., dropped 3.6 per cent from 1948, President Walter H. Sammis said in his annual report today.

The decline was occasioned by curtailments in industrial operations due to the coal and steel strikes.

The reduction in industrial electric sales revenue, however, was more than offset by increased sales to other classes of users, the net result being a gain in consolidated operating revenue of 2.3 per cent, the total for the year being $77,282,543.

Information and statistics in this year's report are on a "pro forma" basis, i.e., on the assumption that the Ohio Public Service Co., had been merged into Ohio Edison Co. Edison acquired Public Service on Dec. 23, 1949, and an agreement of merger will be submitted to stockholders of both companies for adoption at meetings in April.

Earnings applicable to the common stock of Ohio Edison Co. in 1949 on a pro forma basis amounted to $11,708,764, compared with $11,176,281 in 1948, on an estimated 3,965,970 shares of common stock that would be outstanding upon merger.

Operating expenses were 3.5 per cent, or $1,346,820, under 1948, primarily as a result of 252,000 kilowatts in new and more efficient steam-electric generating equipment recently installed. The companies used 2,868,304 tons of coal in 1949 which cost $14,893,902.

Taxes increased $1,578,486 or 12.3 per cent, to a total of $14,469,046, equivalent to about 19 cents of every dollar of operating revenue.

To keep ahead of the ever-increasing requirements for light, power and steam heating service the system companies expended $37,902,001 for property additions and improvements, making a four year grand total of $107,290,136. This compares with $22,987,198 for the four year years, 1942-1945 and $31,563,644 for the four years, 1938-1941.

Over half of 1949 construction expenditures were for additions to steam-electric power plants, including 120,000 kilowatts at the Toronto plant on the Ohio river, 65,000 kilowatts at the Edgewater plant in Lorain, and 23,000 kilowatts at the Mad river plant in Springfield. A new 100,000-kilowatt generating unit at the R. E. Burger plant on Ohio river is expected to be in service this month.

New customers added were 14,696, making a total of 495,712. Average annual home use of electricity reached 2,108 kilowatt hours, or 25.1 per cent above the figure for the country as a whole.

At the same time, the average price paid by the system's residential users continued its downward trend to 2.75 cents per kilowatt hour, or 7.1 per cent below the national average.

The system's 45,000 farm customers required an average of 3,846 kilowatt hours of electricity, which was far above the figure for farmer use in the eastern part of the United States. Over 97 per cent of farms in the companies' 8,200 square miles of service area are supplied with electric service.

The report stated that 25 per cent of the utility's customers now cook electrically, and 87 per cent enjoy the conveniences of electric refrigeration.

As evidence of the advantages for industrial expansion in the Ohio area served, 108 new industrial enterprises were established in 1949.

Of Edison's total stockholders, 64 per cent of the holders of preferred and 20 per cent of the holders of common stock reside in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Aim Belgian Strikes At King's Return

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 21—(UP)—More than 25,000 longshoremen and shipyard workers in Antwerp walked out today in a 24-hour warning strike against the return of King Leopold, paralyzing Europe's largest port.

Portsmouth Elks Protest State Raids

PORTSMOUTH, March 21—(AP)—Merrill L. Rowe, manager of the Elks Country Club of Portsmouth, said yesterday he would protest weekend raids by state liquor agents.

Liquor agents seeking slot machines visited the club Friday and Sunday nights—but came away empty handed.

"If the agents had called on us Thursday or Saturday nights," Rowe said, "we would have been glad to give them free run of the club house. Friday night we were closed, and there wasn't anyone on the premises."

The club mailed in its liquor permit for cancellation. Oscar L. Fleckner, state liquor director, said he would forward the permit to the liquor control board and recommend a hearing. This would give agents a chance to testify about "resistance" they said they met Friday at the club. Agents said they were not permitted to search a locked pantry.

U. S. HOCKEY TEAM WINS

LONDON, March 21—(AP)—The United States and Switzerland, each with a record of two victories and one loss, will clash tonight in one of the final round games of the world amateur ice hockey championships.

Both the U. S. and Swiss teams won by 3-2 scores last night. The Americans edged Britain, previously unbeaten, in a rough affair and Switzerland defeated Sweden in an upset.

College Vote Could Be Upped--Rhodes

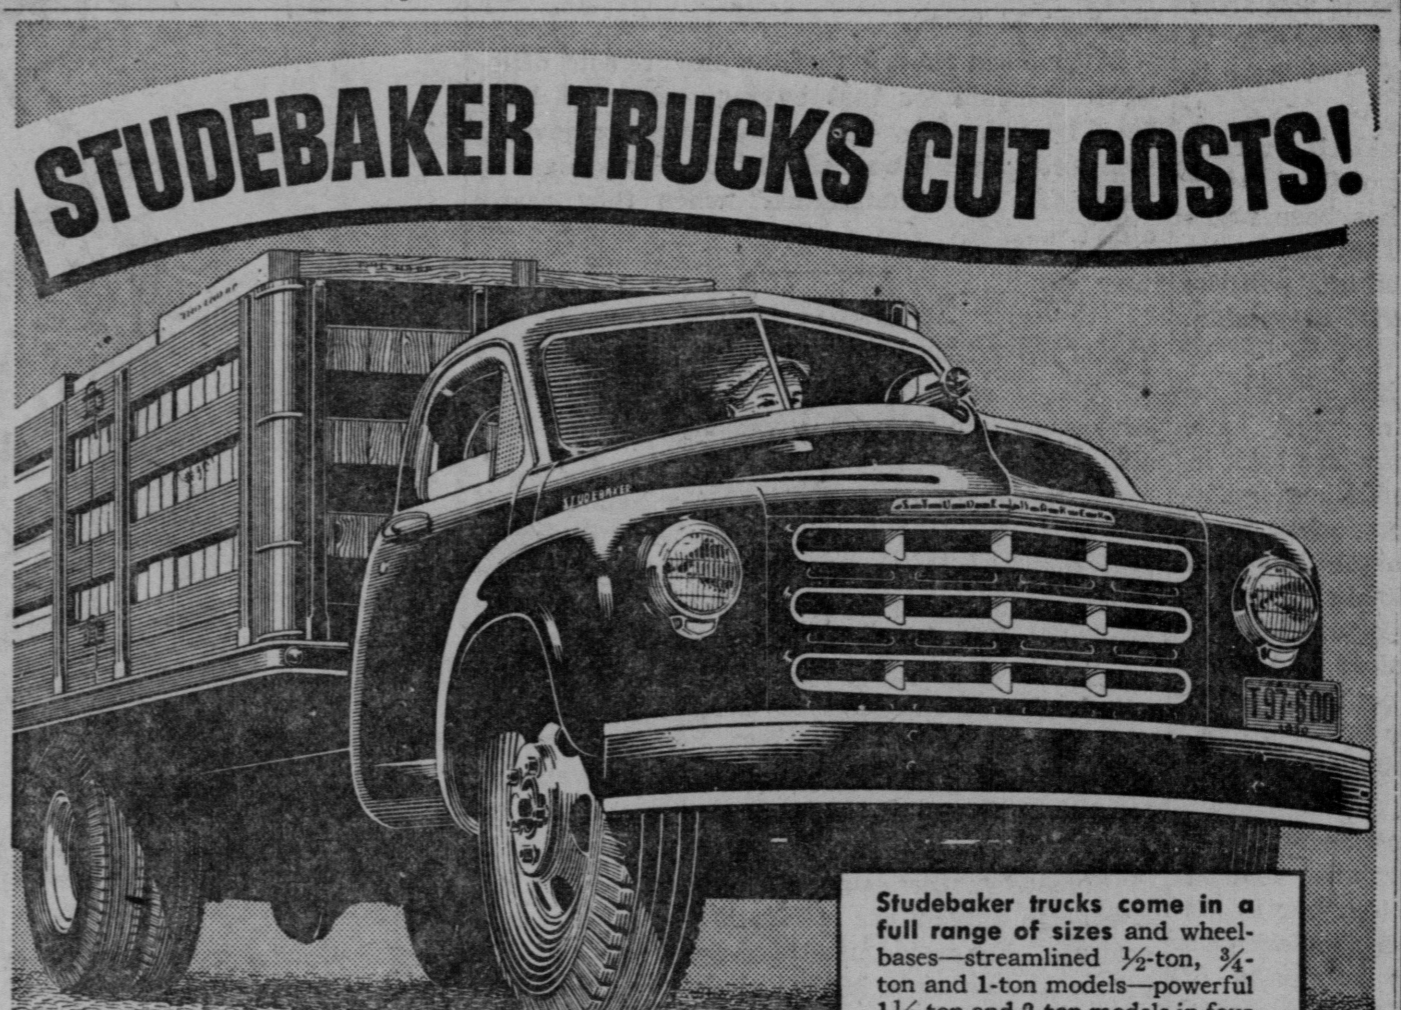

COLUMBUS, March 21—(AP)—Mayor James A. Rhodes has come up with a suggestion he says will bring out at least 50,000 additional voters at elections.

The candidate for the Republican nomination for governor said yesterday to Ohio Wesleyan University students at Delaware:

"At present, students are required to vote through our laborious absent-ballot machinery if they do not reside in the college locale. This is discouraging and distracting to most of them. The result is they do not vote."

If election laws regarding students are simplified, he said, at least 50,000 more will vote.

Heads Getting Cracked

IT HAS BEEN a long time between Secretary of Defense Johnson's first free-swinging acts after his appointment a little less than a year ago to Capt. Crommelin's latest statement. But there is a close relationship.

Capt. Crommelin says he is considering a race for the U.S. Senate as an opponent of the kind of armed services unification which has been practiced under Secretary Johnson. That means he believes the issue finally has drifted into politics; that it is no longer a mere difference of opinion. He may be right about that.

Certainly no argument ever has stirred up more excitement among Americans who have served in the fighting forces and now are back in civilian life. And among the professional members of the services it is the most important issue of a lifetime. Whether or not it might have been possible to achieve military coordination without raising a bitter issue is indeterminate. But the fact is that the issue has been raised and is on the verge of getting into national politics through men like Crommelin, whose career in the professional Navy has been cut short by disciplinary measures for talking out of turn.

Soon after Mr. Johnson became Secretary of Defense on March 31, 1949, he declared that he might have to crack some heads together to get results. If the military unification problem gets into partisan politics, there will be plenty of heads cracked together, with headaches to match.

Automatic Discrimination

THE MAGNIFICENT structure that will house the secretariat of the United Nations in New York City should be the best office building on earth. Nothing should be spared which might promote peace by eliminating friction.

This new "Capital of the World" will be cooled by a continuous flow of water through its cubicles. The same system that cools it will heat it and control its humidity. Endless belts will move documents from place to place, thereby saving time for busy personnel.

The furniture will be specially designed, as will its lighting. But nothing is being said about the automatic discriminator.

The A.D. is a marvelous machine which sorts out stuff and divides it into three categories. Category 1 demands immediate and earnest attention; it is the smallest in volume but the most important, obviously. Category 2 can be disregarded for the time-being; if disregarded long enough it can be disregarded permanently. Category 3 can be disregarded, period. It is the most numerically important of the categories.

Thus, category 3 requires much wasted effort under usual systems of sorting out stuff. Furthermore, the usual systems make mistakes. The A.D., however, is fully automatic. It never makes mistakes. The United Nations itself will be making a mistake if it doesn't include one of the big super-bureaucracy models of A.D. in its ultra-modern equipment.

Spring Song

NOTHING could be much sillier than the notion that spring arrived on March 20 at 11:36 p. m. The only close competitor is the notion that the ideal human being should resemble a circus freak because that's what the average for all human beings would look like if such a thing actually existed. If spring arrived last night, someone's playing jokes. But it wasn't spring.

Spring is not a date on the calendar, or a mark on the face of a clock. Its coming and going are unpredictable, like the moods of mankind. Soon there will be an instant when the

Being Funny Is No Joke

NEW YORK WHEN A MAN writes 12,500 jokes a year, he feels he ought to know why a thing is funny or not.

"But there are some things you just can't explain," said Walter Kiernan, a radio humorist who figures he has turned out some 75,000 gags in the last six years.

"Take the 'K' sound, for example. For some reason it is the funniest sound in the language. No one knows why. But all you have to do is say Brooklyn or Hoboken or Kakamazoo or Keokuk—and people start laughing.

"The first laugh Jack Benny ever got on the stage came when he stepped out and said 'my name is Benny Kubelsky'—which is his real name. But the audience died laughing at what is known as the rule-of-three joke," said Kiernan. "For instance, if you say, 'she is not only pretty...she is not only wealthy...but she is also stupid'—well, a certain percentage of people will think that remark is mildly funny. The sequence builds up to an anticlimax."

ALWAYS POPULAR also is the sun's warmth on the top of an uncovered head will feel authoritative. A gentle puff of air will bear the fragrance of a hyacinth blooming on a southern exposure. Or perhaps the acrid odor of suds from a housecleaning operation. The thud of a baseball smacking into a mitt will be heard. There will be a powerful impulse to lean up against something substantial and ruminate over things half seen and not well understood.

When that happens, it will be spring. Until then, a rain check will be about as close as anyone can expect to, come, this being that kind of a year.

Afraid Of Being In The Dark?

THE General Accounting Office in Washington declares that many federal agencies, squirrel-like, amass great hoards of supplies against a distant day in the future.

We can make a little allowance for an outfit that surrounds itself with reams of extra paper. In a town that's built on directives-in-triplicate, fears of a paper shortage are understandable.

But we're totally puzzled by the agency that collected enough light bulbs to serve its needs for the next 93 years.

All we can guess is that the procurement official responsible for that buying orgy must have been frightened by the famous wartime government order which warned all federal employees to "terminate the illumination" when they really didn't need it.

So Old It's New

DESCRIPTIONS of a new kind of chair being placed on sale by a New York firm claim advantages which have a vaguely familiar note about them.

Built on the general lines of a hammock, if a hammock rested on legs, the chair's design is said to be good for the nerves, facilitate easy breathing, diminish high blood pressure, overcome muscular strain, relax the back and shoulders and provide new zest for living after suitable periods of use. These and other features enable it to aid digestion, get rid of tired feet, induce sleep and help eyesight. The chair also is ideal for watching television, it's pointed out, but that sounds like an afterthought.

Somewhat the same advantages used to accrue from diligent use of two devices once in general use. For inside use there was a piece of furniture known as a Morris chair, which usually came equipped with a foot rest and had an adjustable back, to simulate the lines of a hammock. And in the good old summer time, of course, there was the hammock itself. It was good for the nerves, the lungs, blood pressure, muscular strain, the back and shoulders. It aided digestion, rested the feet and induced sleep. Congratulations to the designers of a new kind of chair for stumbling on something so old it's new. And good for watching television, too!

"I mumble out loud as I write, because the material has to sound right as well as read right."

Unlike many comedians, Kiernan doesn't keep a card file of jokes.

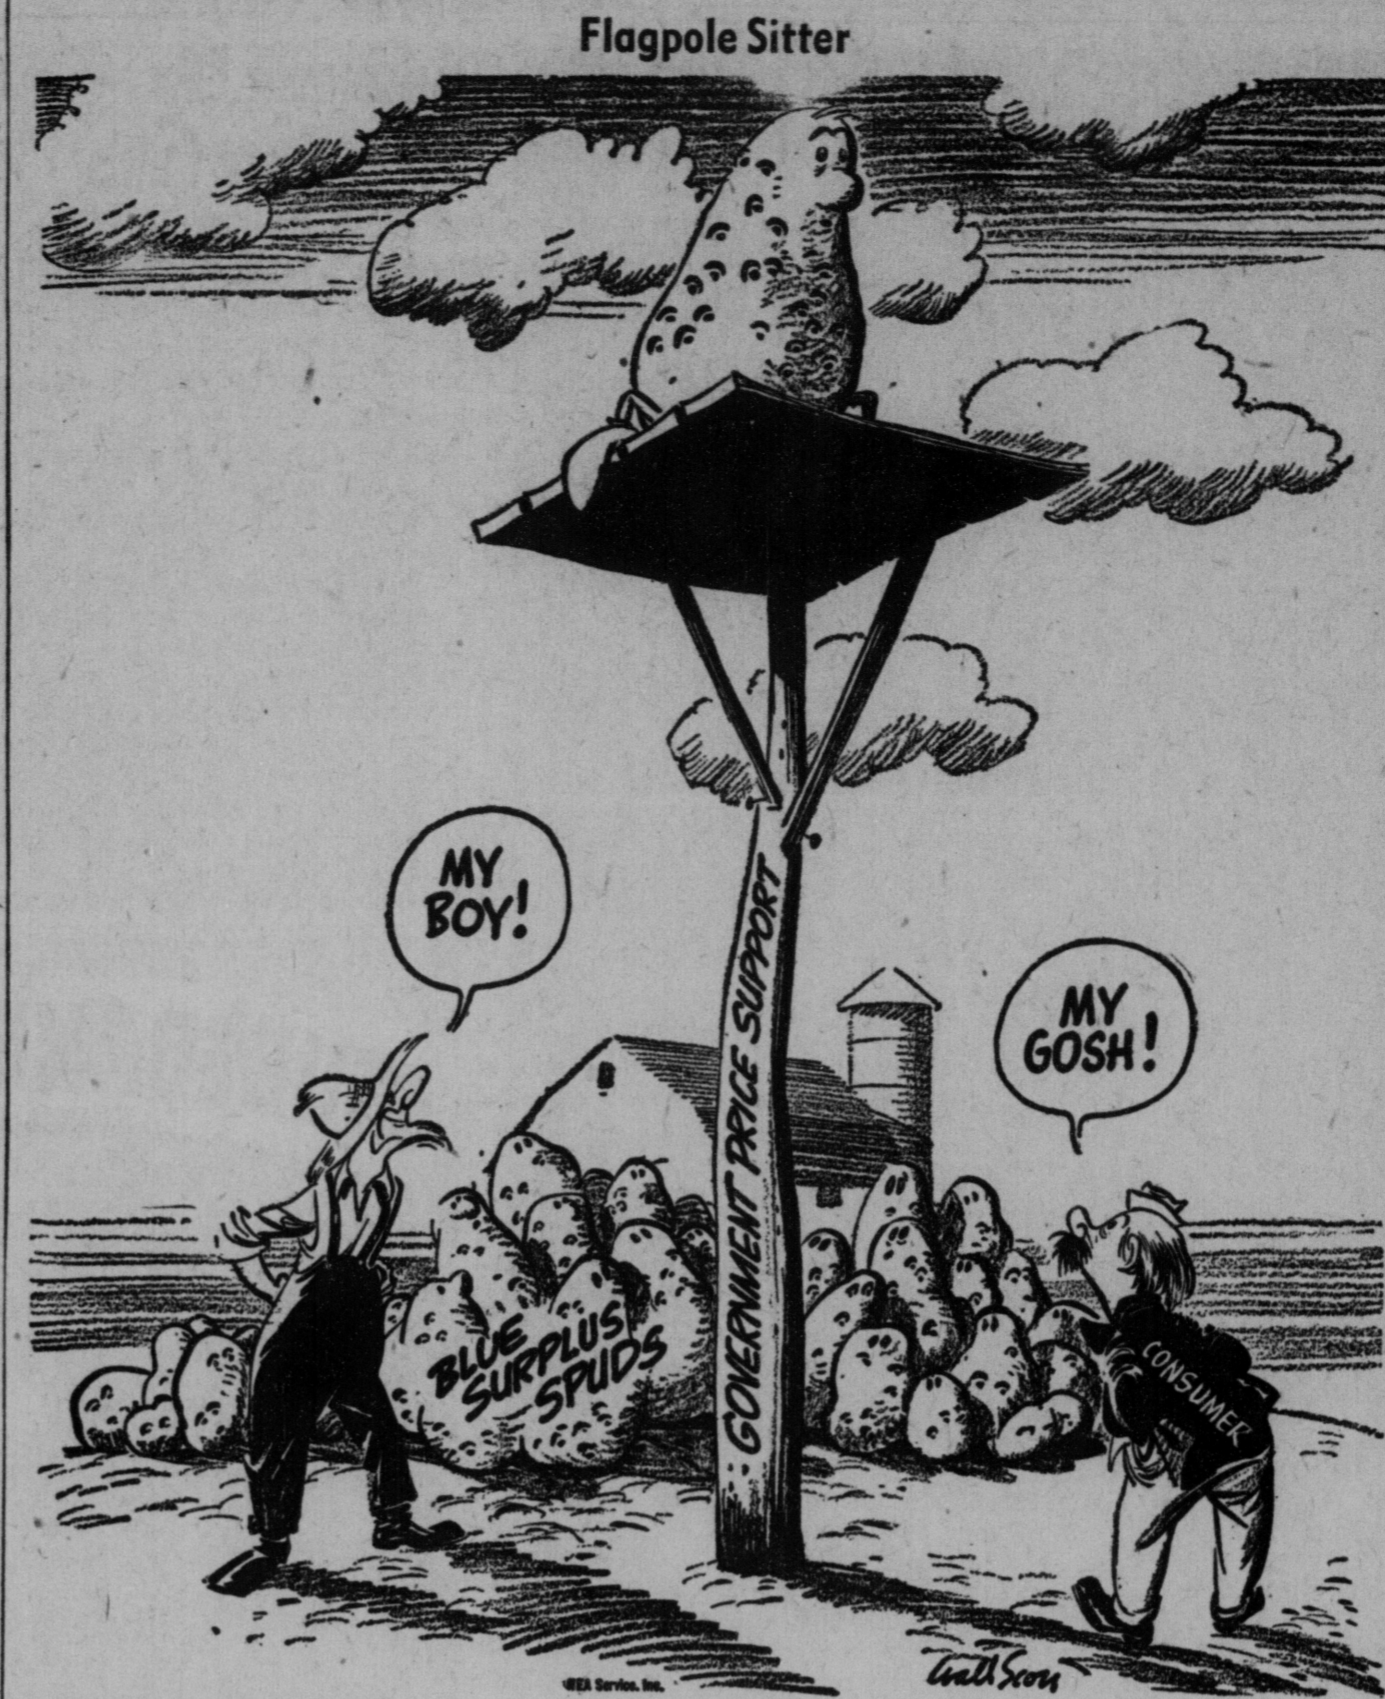

"When you've used a joke, it's better to throw it away," he said. "You can't keep yourself alive long trying to keep old jokes alive."

He avoids dialect jokes, atom bomb jokes ("it's too serious to joke about"), or deformity words—such as blind cross, blind date, cock-eyed or cross-eyed.

"Anyone who has a deformity doesn't think it's funny," said Kiernan.

What is his funniest joke. He doesn't know, but the one copied most often by other humorists was his story of how he made an electric blanket by using some wiring from an old toaster but had to give it up "because it started popping me out of bed buttered on both sides."

"Everybody seemed to pick that one up," said Kiernan wryly. "They were all being thrown out of bed covered with marmalade or toasted on both legs."

Truman Has Vacation Business Worries

By DAVID LAWRENCE

KEY WEST, FLA. UNEASY lies the head that carries responsibility—for there is no such thing as a vacation from the presidential job.

President Truman has found here rest and seclusion—a chance for meditation, a chance to think through some of the major problems that bother him. He gets a vacation, of course, from the pressures of a daily calling list and from the hour-by-hour demands on his time from heads of departments and governmental agencies. But the task of being President never ceases for a moment.

Even on the sandy beach where the President goes for a daily swim, there is a telephone in the dressing room a few feet away. He can talk to Washington or London or even Moscow if he wishes.

NOBODY who has looked over this quiet retreat at the southernmost tip of the United States could possibly begrudge Mr. Truman this bit of isolation. It isn't at all luxurious—it's just a plain military barracks where there is privacy because it is a naval station with a high wire fence around it and a handful of sailors and marines guarding the entrances. The only luxury is the sun and the blue waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Life goes on almost exactly as it does in Washington. The press corps is here—not as large as at the White House, but just as vigilant, just as professionally objective, just as curious and persevering in representing the people's interest.

In back of the President is an efficient staff in Washington, which sifts the important from the unimportant before sending down a pouch of mail. Anything that comes here for action is of topmost significance—and much of what is done here isn't publicized at all.

ONCE A DAY Charles G. Ross, veteran newspaper man who acts as press relations secretary for the President, gives out the news that the President has decided to make public. Mr. Ross answers questions freely and altogether one might say that the routine is carried on exactly as it is in the executive offices in Washington.

This is readily accomplished because of the airplane and the telephone. The President can send for anyone and bring him here by air in a few hours for a conference. He can do business by telephone if he wishes to work faster than the airplane can carry his letters or orders.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Aiding Cerebral Palsy Victims

AN injury to the brain occurring during or right after birth produces a pathetic condition called cerebral palsy. There are thousands of unfortunate children who suffer from this kind of muscular affliction. Sometimes these youngsters are called spastic children.

Much has been done for the cerebral palsied child in the past. Now the interests of these children are being even better taken care of today largely because of the efforts of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults—an organization which has branches in many cities and states.

This society acts as a clearing house to provide information on this little-understood and long-neglected problem. It aids also in providing state and local groups with the skilled consultation which is needed to organize and run treatment centers.

Children handicapped in this way need to be treated both physically and mentally. On the physical side there should be a long-range plan set up by the medical advisers with the cooperation of the home and the school.

Special/muscle training should be started at the earliest possible moment in order to decrease the difficulty with movement. Certain games are particularly adaptable for these handicapped youngsters. Exercises using music or verses and songs may be useful. Regular eating, sleeping, resting, bathing, dressing and play habits should accompany the exercises prescribed by the physician.

The educational and psychological assistance which can be given is most important. A calm harmonious home life is desirable. The education should be given at the speed which the youngster can take easily and carried as far as it is reasonable to. A child afflicted in this way usually progresses at a slower rate than others of the same age.

Encouragement is important. The youngster with cerebral palsy should have some play with normal children. The speech can be encouraged. Although these youngsters need sympathy and affection, they ought not to be pampered or spoiled. Pity is out of place.

It is necessary to train and distribute large numbers of nurses, psychologists, and teachers who understand the special problems involved. Sometimes these youngsters have superior intellects, but have difficulty in developing them satisfactorily in regular schools. Special schools and special attention bring big dividends in the way of improvement for those whose brains have been injured before or at birth.

Far East Policy

By PETER EDSON

McCarthy Charges May Put Spotlight There

WASHINGTON SEN. JOSEPH R. MCCARTHY of Wisconsin has finally struck what for him may be pay dirt. By bringing out into the open the name of John Stewart Service as one of his State Department security risks, Senator McCarthy may be heading the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee into an investigation of the whole Far Eastern division of the State Department.

Of course, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee made one investigation of the State Department's Far Eastern division in 1945. That was when, Gen. Pat Hurley hurled his charges against the department after resigning in a huff as ambassador to China. Three of the men named by General Hurley as having sabotaged U. S. policy in China have now been named by Senator McCarthy. They are John Stewart Service, Ambassador John Carter Vincent, and John P. Davies, Jr., now on the State Department's Policy Planning Staff.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee dropped the Hurley charges after a short investigation. The new Foreign Relations Subcommittee under Chairman Millard E. Tydings of Maryland may do nothing more with the McCarthy charges this time. But these things hang on like the plague and it will probably be necessary to reinvestigate them every few years till all the principals are dead.

SENATOR MCCARTHY having brought in a lot of old dirty linen, it might be just as well to turn the Tydings investigation into a Chinese policy laundry. Run it through the mangle and the wringer again, then hang it on the line for everyone to see. That's the only way a lot of suspicious neighbors are going to be convinced.

The Tydings Committee's investigation into China policy will get off to a good start when it hears Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup. He flew back to Washington, instead of taking a slow boat from China, in order to answer the charges of Communist front affiliations which Senator McCarthy had thrown at him.

Owen J. Lattimore of Johns Hopkins University, sometime consultant to the State Department, adviser of Chiang Kai-shek, and referred to by Senator McCarthy as one of the chief architects of U. S. China policy, is now in Asia as an adviser to Afghanistan. But his wife says he'll have an answer to the charges when he gets back.

In justice to Ambassador Vincent and John P. Davies, Jr., they should be given a chance to appear in public hearing, too. Service has been ordered to return from India to appear personally before a department loyalty board. Then either find them guilty of some specific charge, or clear them once and for all and let them alone.

AMBASSADOR VINCENT is Senator McCarthy's Case No. 2 in his first list of 80 security risks. Vincent, 50, is now U. S. ambassador to Switzerland. He served in China from 1928 to 1935 and in 1941 and '42. In 1943 he was made chief of the Far Eastern Division, serving there till sent to Switzerland a year or so ago. Vincent has for years been criticized as the man who gave U. S. China policy a slant towards the Communists.

In describing his case No. 2, Senator McCarthy said: "... this individual contacts a Russian espionage agent, and that agent is followed to the Russian embassy, where the material is handed over."

John S. Service, 41, was recently ordered to India as U. S. consul at Calcutta. He was born in China of missionary parents. He served in various posts in the Orient from 1933 to 1945. On the Senate floor Senator McCarthy said, "It will be recalled that the FBI picked up Service for having delivered secret State Department documents to Amerasia."

In testimony before the Tydings Subcommittee, Senator McCarthy amplified on the Amerasia magazine spy case of 1945. Service has been investigated and cleared of complicity in this case five times, including one federal grand jury and an investigation by a House Judiciary Subcommittee. The State Department says that the Civil Service Commission recommended that Service appear personally before State's own loyalty board. This board more than a year ago cleared him without a personal appearance.

John P. Davies, Jr., was likewise born in China. On graduation from Columbia in 1931 he entered U. S. Foreign Service. He was stationed in various China posts from 1933 to 1939. He was in the State Department for the next two years, then back in China 1942-44. He was consul and first secretary at the U. S. embassy in Moscow 1945-46, returning to Washington in 1947 to take a place on the State Department's top Policy Planning Staff.

Growing Old Gracefully

By TRUMAN TWILL

THE spread of compulsory retirement plans is going to bring on an epidemic of advice about growing old gracefully. The advice will be well-intended, but most of it will be useless for the good and simple reason that it will come too late.

Nothing is more hopeless than to try to change the outlooks and habits of a person "set in his ways," as the old expression had it. The time to start growing old gracefully, it stands to reason, is while there's still time to do some growing. Some specimens need attention shortly after they reach 21, as far as that's concerned.

Anyone who waits until a few weeks before the compulsory retirement which is going to be the bitter pill in all the retirement plans now getting under way is likely to have an experience in futility. The truth is that in the United States, retirement from money-making always has been regarded as the end of the trail. And the further—and more uncomfortable—truth is that in a country dedicated 90 percent to materialism, retirement will continue to be the end of the trail until there have been a few changes made.

But changes are not impossible, even though it's likely to take the better part of a generation to make any headway with them. But Americans have high spiritude for learning the score. They won't flunk the assignment of learning how to grow old gracefully though forced to leave their familiar occupational rut.

They'll discover that many of them weren't doing too good a job in the rut. They just grew old. Their minds hardened before they began to have trouble with their arteries. They were mentally 80 years old before they sprouted their first gray hairs.

In some cases they behaved as though their lease on life had expired permanently. And in some cases they acted as if they believed the lease would be automatically renewable on their own terms whenever they made up their minds to change the terms. But they waited too long.

The time to begin to grow old gracefully, all things considered, is on or about the age of 21. Under no circumstances should the matter be neglected beyond the age of 35. Anyone who puts it off that long is likely to learn that his talent for broadening his own horizon has atrophied through neglect. He will be like fire horses in the good old days when they were turned out to pasture to die but kept waiting for the gong because all they knew how to do was run to fires.

These things and many more will be pointed out by experts for the benefit of people destined to be turned out to pasture under the new social dispensation in the United States which demands that oldsters make room for youngsters. Oldsters facing retirement will be urged to take up tating, basket-weaving, rabbit-breeding and other varieties of hobbies, most of them too silly to think about. The expert advice will be well-intended but fatuous because it will miss the point, which is that anyone who waits until retirement to begin living has been wasting his time.

Student Strikes Hit 2 Schools

Youngsters At Fitch, Greensburg 'Out'

YOUNGSTOWN, March 21—(AP)—Two strikes by high school pupils broke out yesterday—one at Austintown, about eight miles west of here, the other at Greensburg, near Akron, O.

About 100 students of Austintown Fitch walked out in protest over the school board's failure to rehire Matthew Fehn, football coach. The striking group represents about 25 per cent of the enrollment, including the boys who failed to win a football game last year.

School Superintendent Marcus McEvoy tried to get the students to return to their classrooms, but they drowned him out with boos and shouts of, "we want Fehn."

A different reason was believed cause for the Greensburg High strike. Nearly 200 pupils paraded in picket lines there, their demonstration touched up by banners declaring, "we want justice" and "this school is unfair."

What apparently caused student resentment is a school rule saying that students cannot leave school grounds from the time classes start in the morning till they end in the afternoon. Specifically, they are not allowed to cross the street to a nearby drug store during school hours or during lunch half-hour.

More than a dozen pupils were suspended last week for leaving the grounds. Some were readmitted after signing an agreement to obey school regulations but others, who refused to sign, reportedly were still under suspension today.

Principal V. M. Webb's only comment was that he had not made the rule but was enforcing it.

The demonstrators stayed out of afternoon classes to picket.

House To Get 29 Billion Money Bill

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP)—A $29,000,000,000 appropriation bill awaited routine committee approval today before starting on its hurdle-strewn path through the House.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) predicted a final appropriations committee okay by noon for the omnibus measure wrapping up the budgets of more than 40 federal agencies for the 1951 fiscal year, beginning July 1.

More than half of the bill was approved tentatively yesterday without change. There were no indications that the remaining part, almost $13,000,000,000 in

In keeping with previously disclosed strategy, the Republican "economy bloc" is holding back its drive against the bill until it reaches the amendment stage in the House, probably the week beginning April 2.

The budget-cutters then hope to be able to knock at least another billion dollars from the measure already trimmed more than that amount by appropriations subcommittees.

The bill is scheduled for house debate starting next Monday and its difficulties will start then.

Fichter Fears Dip In Farm Buying Power

COLUMBUS, March 21—(AP)—The Ohio State Grange master said last night the nation's economy will crumble as it did 20 years ago if the purchasing power of farmers continues to dwindle.

Joseph W. Fichter spoke at the Ohio Grange conference being held in conjunction with farm and home week at Ohio State University.

He called for legislative action to provide "equality of opportunity" for agriculture along with business and labor. But he did not elaborate on the type of legislation desired.

Fichter said farmers have been criticized and attacked unfairly by city people who have the impression farmers are greedy people "who are making big money while people in the cities pay high prices for food."

He called these charges unjustified, citing the fact that total net income of farm people averaged $763 in 1949, while the average for non-farm people was $1,555 per person. Fichter added that net income of farmers dropped 17 per cent last year compared with a decrease of only one per cent for non-farmers.

"Agriculture cannot maintain financial solvency under this disadvantage," Fichter asserted.

Corn, Oats, Tobacco On Ohio Program

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP)—Ohio farmers plan to cut corn, oats and tobacco plantings this year under a government crop control program, an Agriculture department survey shows today.

At the same time, Ohio farmers plan to use more land for raising soybeans and sugar beets. Prospective plantings in terms of acres and last year's plantings listed:

Corn—3,337,000 and 3,627,000. Oats—1,291,000 and 1,372,000. Tobacco—19,800 and 20,900. Soybeans—1,010,000 and 902,000. Sugar beets—38,000 and 31,000.

Farm Bureau Co.'s Profits Reach Peak

COLUMBUS, March 21—(AP)—Last year was the most prosperous in the Farm Bureau Insurance Company's history, their annual statement shows today.

Total premium income was $54,482,115, nearly $10,000,000 greater than the year before. Murray D. Lincoln, president of the Auto, Fire and Life companies, said:

"This made 1949 the most successful year in the companies' history."

Total assets increased from $64,123,892 to $79,793,263; payments to policy-holders, beneficiaries and claimants increased more than $3,000,000; total surplus jumped more than $4,000,000 and number of new policies increased about 18 percent, the statement shows.

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulgy person in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "Battle of the Bulges" common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to overeat and it is not necessary to go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which means cut down on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this up very long and when you quit—back comes the fat.

An exhaustive survey recently made among Ohio druggists showed one outstanding reducing aid is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It allows you to eat plenty. You eat all you want but you eat LESS. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time, it dehydrates and eliminates.

Over a quarter million bottles of this preparation, called Renel Concentrate have been sold in Ohio in the past 1½ years. You can get a four-ounce bottle of Renel from any Ohio druggist. Mix with 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take just two tablespoonsful twice a day.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose that ugly fat, the makers agree to refund your money.

Authority On Ohio Gives Talk To Book Club And Leornians

MRS. OLIVER KUHN of Hartville, introduced Monday evening, as "the woman who likes to talk about Ohio," left her audience of Leornians and Book Club members with the realization that a trip through Ohio should be their first travel requisite.

Sixty women, meeting at their annual party in the library assembly room, heard Mrs. Kuhn, who makes a hobby of Buckeye State lore and is chairman of the Ohioana Library Association of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. She was introduced by Mrs. T. W. Purviance, Book Club program chairman.

"Ohio, the historical and the beautiful" is the slogan with which Ohio is labeled according to Mrs. Kuhn, who has found proof of the fact in her 20 years of travel about the state.

On a trail of scenic beauty she mentioned the "Switzerland" to be seen in southeast Ohio, with the "rim of the world" to be found between McConnelsville and Glouster on Route 72.

The speaker called the club's attention to the important rivers of Ohio, all which retain their Indian names, as Cuyahoga, Tuscarawas, Sciota and Miami. The lakes, both natural as Lake Erie and artificial as Buckeye Lake, are among the beauty spots to be visited.

The fall is the time to see the forests, notable among them Mohican State Forest, she said. Then come the parks, rich in scenic and historic value.

The famous Indian Mounds throughout the state she classified as forts, burial places or religious monuments. Mounds were often made in effigy of animals or snakes.

The "firsts" in Ohio are three. The first white man's home was built in Stark County in 1761 by Christian Frederick Post a Moravian minister to the Indians. The site is commemorated by a plaque placed in 1924 by Massillon D. A. R. In 1772, David Zeisberger, also of Moravian faith, started the first settlement, first church and first school at Schroenbrunn.

The first permanent settlement established in 1778, is Marietta. Rufus Putnam was the founder of what Mrs. Kuhn called a well-marked city for travelers.

Ohio, vying with Virginia, is called the mother of presidents, with eight born on her soil. Five are buried in the state. Of all the memorials the Harding memorial in Marion is the most beautiful according to Mrs. Kuhn.

Miss Helen E. Lease of Salem received recognition from the speaker when Ohio authors were discussed because William West Tomlinson is a nephew of Miss Lease. Notable among this Salem man's works is "Time Out to Live."

The Salem city hall is known to Mrs. Kuhn as "Old Liberty Hall," where the second national women's suffrage convention was held.

Singer Helen Jepson is an Ohioan as is Actor Clark Gable, whose initials are carved in wood at Yale, northwest of Salem. McGuffey Readers have been studied by three generations in all the states of the Union, while Platt Spencer established the Spencerian school of writing.

Other famous persons from Ohio include J. Bryan Nash from New Baltimore, who advanced physical education, and Ray, the man who wrote the famous Ray's arithmetic.

Mrs. Harry Snyder, president of the Book Club presided at the joint meeting, introducing Leornian president, Miss Helen Thorp, and secretary, Mrs. Elmer Stamp, and Book Club Secretary Mrs. Warren Brown.

The Ohio theme was carried out in the singing of "Beautiful Ohio" by Mrs. Robert Talbot, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Snyder. She also sang "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen" and "Easter Parade."

Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Harry Loria presided at the silver service when refreshments were served by the Leornians at the long buffet table decorated in the spring theme. Twin epernes in crystal contained pink and yellow snapdragons.

The Leornian house and hospitality committees included Mrs. E. T. Trebilcock, Mrs. Jane Votaw, Mrs. Walter Ferrall, Miss Thelma Thomas, Mrs. Erven McLaughlin and Mrs. Vernon Broomall.

Miller City Team, Wearing Self-Bought Shoes, Is Good

COLUMBUS, March 21 — (INS) — By sheer logic, the speedy, rangy Eagles of little Geneva High School should be favorites to snare this year's state Class B Scholastic basketball title.

But Miller City's undersized Wildcats don't believe in logic. If they did they wouldn't be any where near the finals. And because they don't, they most certainly will be the "little darlings" of tournament play.

Never more than Miller City has any club deserved the title "Cinderella team." Wearing three-year-old uniforms and shoes they bought themselves, the Putnam county hotshots have won 27 games in a row without a loss.

With their tallest man only six-foot, one-inch in height, the Wildcats scorched opponents hoops for 1,529 points while themselves allowing just 956.

All this from a school with just 84 students, 38 of them boys, which never before managed even to get past a district tournament in the state championship dash.

Center Ralph Meyer and Forward Frank Schroeder are the main cogs in the Miller City scoring machine. In Miller City's 18 regular-season games, Meyer hit for 242 points and Schroeder for 256.

Meyer really waited until Toledo regional play last week to prove his worth to the team.

Against defending champion Delphos St. John, he held Dick Honingford, Delphos' six-foot, seven-inch all Ohio center, to 22 points, whereas the Blue Jay flash had been averaging over 30 per game in tourney play.

Meyer himself, six inches shorter than his opponent, counted 15 points and tipped in the final basket to give the Wildcats a 43-42 decision. Against Leesville Saturday, rugged Ralph tallied 21 points in Miller City's 60-64 conquest.

If any team can burst Miller City's bubble, it is Geneva. Although the Eagles' 23-2 over-all record is slightly less impressive than that of the Wildcats, it should be noted Geneva played only against Class A clubs.

The Ashtabula county sharpshooters romped off easily with the Lake Shore League title while losing only to Ashtabula Harbor and city-champion Cleveland Lincoln in a non-conference test.

Big Jim Merrell, a six-foot, three-inch, 220-pounder, is the Geneva kingpin about which revolves both the Eagles' offense and defense. His cohorts include a trio of scoring experts in the form of Dale Arkenberg, Sam Mangine and Dave Marx.

A final game clash between Miller City and Geneva would be a natural crowd-pleaser. But both clubs have strong opponents in opening-round play. Geneva takes on Eaton (18-4) Thursday at 2:30 p. m., (EST) and Miller City tackles Corning (25-4) Thursday at 8 p. m.

Rallying late in the fourth quarter to forge ahead in a close game, the Fisher News Class A team Monday night eliminated the Amvets 1 five from the Shaughnessy playoff by beating them 48-44 at the Memorial building.

The Class C Baptists stomped over the Trinity 62-27 in the church loop playoff. Tonight

Hot shooting by Mike Linder and John "Ham" Girscht paved the way for the Fisher victory. Linder caged 15 and Girscht got 17 for the winners, while Johnny Pridon netted 16 for the Amvets.

The lead see-sawed back and forth throughout the tilt, but the Fisher five sewed it up in the last few moments. The Amvets, missing their center Mo Hollinger, seemed to have a bad night from the floor.

Utterback and Youtz were the top men for the Baptists, with 17 and 21 points respectively. Funk got eight for the Trinity.

Jacksonville Open Goes To Middlecoff

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 21—(AP)—Cary Middlecoff may have started another run of red-hot golf with his victory in the Jacksonville Open yesterday.

Shooting a 69 on the final day here, Middlecoff scored 279 for the 72 holes.

Jack Burke of White Plains, N. Y., saw his 54-hole lead vanish with a sad 78. At 285 the best he could do was a sixth place tie.

Sam Snead also slipped. He came in with 74 for 284 and a fourth place tie.

George Fazio of Washington, D. C., added 71 to three rounds of 70 for 281 and second money of $1,400. Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., was a steady par 72 to end with 282 and $1,000.

Snead and Jim Ferrie of San Francisco got $750 each for 284's. Burke, Al Bessellink of Detroit, Bob Hamilton of Landover, Md., and Skip Alexander of Knoxville, Tenn., collected $487.50 apiece at 285.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo shot even golf after a bad first day and was low amateur at 292—five strokes better than any other.

A new four-year basketball scoring total of 675 points was posted during his career by Don Rehfeldt of Wisconsin.

Reds' Blackwell Nears Comeback

Three Inning Workout Against Cards Is Test

TAMPA, Fla., March 21 — (AP)—Ewell Blackwell rolls slow and easy up the comeback trail.

Step by step, the lean Cincinnati righthander with the whip-cracking motion nears pitching form.

Manager Luke Sewell gave Blacky his first outing Sunday, a three inning stint. It was a stiff test against the St. Louis Cardinal varsity with its lefthanded power. Except for wildness, Blacky slipped home free, using a slow curve.

"I didn't throw one fast ball," said Blackwell. "It's much too early, with a month to go. But I feel fine, stronger than any time last season. I'm taking it slow and easy. This has to be the year for me."

A year ago Blacky was wafer-thin at 165 pounds. A serious operation for removal of a kidney almost ended his baseball career. The all-star pitcher of 1946-47-48 couldn't throw a ball last spring. He didn't appear in a game until May 1 and only started four all season. His longest work stretch was seven and 2/3 innings on relief.

At the end of the season he had pushed his weight up to 175. After a winter of rebuilding he scaled 197. Now he's 198½. Apparently the work is agreeing with him.

Nobody can tell, of course, if Blacky will be able to stand up in the grind of competition. Whether the August sun will sap his vitality. But everybody is optimistic.

His Cincinnati teammates are enthusiastic. To a man, they are pulling for "the thin man" to come through. They realize he can be the difference between last place or a shot at the first division.

"It looks great to see Blackie running," said catcher Dixie Howell. "Last spring he couldn't even run in the outfield. He's going to be all right."

The Card batters thought he looked better than at any time last season, although they knew he wasn't throwing hard.

Manager Sewell was favorably impressed. So was the Card centerfielder Chuck Diering who struck out twice. Blacky's side arm delivery was as baffling as ever.

Perhaps Blackwell never again will hit the heights he reached in 1947. That was the year he won 22 and just missed a double no-hitter. He won 16 in a row, a new modern record for righthanders in the National League and blazed through three shutouts in nings in the All-Star game, striking out four American leaguers.

Now he's 27, younger than most of the top 20 pitchers in the league last season. Barring accident, Blackwell appears to be on the road back.

Training Camp News

SAN FRANCISCO — Gus Zernial, pegged as the Chicago White Sox' heaviest hitter, has been benched.

"The big fellow is overtrained," Manager Jack Onslow said. "He has been physically active all winter getting his arm in shape and he's been hustling all spring. Now he's stale."

Zernial, who broke a collarbone last May diving for a fly ball in Cleveland, notched only four hits in six games, struck out nine times and drove in two runs. Prior to his injury in May he was leading the American League in batting with .355.

LAKELAND, Fla. — The luck is running bad again for Charley Keller.

The former New York slugger is on the Detroit Tigers' casualty list and may be out for three weeks. His foot slipped on a throw and he tore muscles in his left side.

Keller, trying for a comeback after injury with the Yanks, brooded. He said, "a lot of hard work and high hopes went out the window."

OAKLAND, Calif. — Chicago Cup catchers are going to experiment with white gloves in an effort to curb pitching wildness.

Manager Frankie Frisch has ordered two such gloves made of pure white leather.

"Maybe these wild-throwing pitchers can't see where the catcher is giving them the target with those dark-colored gloves," said Frisch. "We'll give 'em a real target. They certainly ought to be able to see a white glove. There's nothing in the book to bar it."

Ohio Cagers Honored At Kentucky Banquet

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 21 — (AP)—Basketball players from Ohio ran away with the honors at the University of Kentucky's basketball banquet last night.

Walt Hirsch, Junior from Dayton, O., was elected captain of next season's squad. Jim Line, Senior from Akron, O., was awarded the Lederer trophy after being voted the most valuable player.

They and Shelby Linville of Middletown, O., were awarded varsity letters.

The banquet was sponsored by the Alumni Association.

That's No 'Saucer',
That's A Kyttoon

COLUMBUS, March 21—(AP)—No, that won't be a flying saucer Columbus residents will see in the air today. It will be a kyttoon.

What is a kyttoon? A kyttoon is part kite and part balloon. This particular kyttoon was to be demonstrated today by Battelle Institute engineers. They were to gather samples of solid particles and gases that pollute the air.

Dr. Hammett Munger, assistant supervisor of Battelle's engineering division says it can measure air pollution up to 2,000 feet. Airplanes and helicopters can't be used, because their propellers and rotar blades stir up the air too much, he said.

The samples will be collected in bottles and piped down a rubber tube to the ground using a vacuum process. Then air pollution experts can determine how high solid particles and gases rise and estimate how far they will travel before they descend to breathing distance, Dr. Munger says.

The kyttoon was invented by Domnia C. Gilbert of Belmont, Mass., associated with the Dewey and Almy Chemical Co. of Cambridge, Mass. It has been used before to measure temperature and relative humidity.

Two brand new departments will be found, one housewares and the other wallpaper. These will be found on the second floor, along with ranges and stoves, paints, plumbing and heating equipment and building material.

Located on the first floor will be washers, ironers, refrigerators and home freezers, radios, batteries, motor oil and other items. Rapid progress has been made in completing the store building for the spring opening. Kille and Haessly were the general contractors.

Mr. Manieri, the new store manager, has had considerable experience in the operation of the larger Sears stores.

Government Pushes
Charge Against UMW

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP)—The government is pushing its charges that John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers defied a judge's back-to-work order during the recent coal strike.

The Justice department attorneys filed an appeal yesterday asking a reversal of the decision by Judge Richmond B. Keach which cleared the union and its president of contempt of court charges.

Keach, who issued the injunction to end the strike during negotiations over a settlement, cleared Lewis and the union of the contempt charges brought after the miner refused to heed his order. He ruled that the government did not prove union officials were responsible for continuing the strike.

Lewis, acting on the court's order, had messaged the men to return to work.

In a brief filed in the circuit court of appeals, the government lawyers contend this message was a "tongue in cheek" move, that Lewis made no sincere effort to get the men back to work.

Stock Exchange

Changes Minor As Market Opens

NEW YORK, March 21—(AP)—A few minutes of lively trade produced only minor price changes at the opening of the stock market today.

The activity soon died down and the market coasted along uneventfully. Gains and losses, virtually all in minor fractions, were in fairly close balance.

Higher prices were paid for American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Du Pont, Goodrich, Zenith Radio, Johns-Manville, U. S. Steel, and American Airlines.

Losers included Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Anaconda Copper, Consolidated Edison, Boeing, Goodyear, Dow Chemical, American Woolen, Sears Roebuck, and Westinghouse Electric.

U. S. Communists
Launch 'Peace' Drive

NEW YORK, March 21—(AP)—The Communist party in America has launched a "peace movement."

The Daily Worker, official organ of the Communist party, reported the plan today as enunciated by National Committee Chairman William Z. Foster and National Secretary Gus Hall.

Foster, ill with a heart ailment, said in a message read yesterday to the party's national committee that "henceforth, more than ever before, the fight for peace must be in the center of all our party's work."

Foster said capitalism would not "abandon this war program until it no longer has the power left with which to make war."

Hall told the national committee the basis now existed in this country for what the Daily Worker described as "a vast peace movement." He said it could embrace "every union, church, block, neighborhood, shop, department, shift, industry, city, county and state."

German Industrialist Visits Keener; Hits Trade Barriers

A Salem visitor this weekend was Dr. Paul H. Inden, plant manager of the Rheinische Rohrenwerke company, tube mill in Düsseldorf, Germany. He was a guest of Sam Keener, Salem Engineering Co. president, an old friend and business acquaintance.

Dr. Inden is making a tour of the United States and South American tube plants as one of the first representatives of the German steel industry to visit the United States since the war. Permission to travel was first given to German steel men about nine months ago.

Keener and Dr. Inden have known each other since 1929 and Salem was the first stopping point since Dr. Inden's arrival in New York. Their companies have collaborated on mutual problems and are now studying the new process of butt-welding of tubing which originated in Germany and has been further developed here.

Keener visited Dr. Inden on both of his overseas trips in 1948 and '49.

Dr. Inden, in discussing the economic problems in Germany, said the Marshall Plan has been a great help to western Germany.

'Assignment: America'

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK, March 21—(INS)—There seems to be a universal desire for a better "ole in the part of all of us H-(for hapless) creatures in this H-bomb age.

Some people seem to feel this better "ole has materialized in the Ozarks where a Mr. Lester Dill of Stanton, Mo., and his New York press agents hope, with a million-dollar loan from Uncle Sam, to equip Mr. Dill's 26-mile-long Ozark cave as a refuge.

However, I have just sent off my formal regrets to Mr. Dill and his public relations experts, on the ground that I am more skait of H-music than H-bombs. In my brave lexicon, any fate, including an H-bomb, is preferable to a hill-billy band. And I cannot picture a genuine Ozark retreat without its fiddlers and three and a doo-see-doo.

So I ain't a goin' that away. I'm a goin' to head for New Hampshire and a friend up there name of James F. O'Neil.

We civilians hear a frightening lot of facts and fiction about atomic war, but precious little about atomic defense. I had to go all the way to New Hampshire to find out that my government cared. But Uncle Sam does care about his chilluns, and slowly he he beginning to move in the matter of civilian defense.

And that is where Mr. O'Neil, an old newspaper man himself, comes into the picture. He has been chief of police of Manchester, N. H., for 16 years.

MR. O'NEIL, a veteran of both World War I and II, was national commander of the American Legion in 1948. Now he has just been appointed director of civilian defense for New Hampshire. A man of immense energy, resourcefulness and intelligence, he is in the process of planning what to do with city slickers like myself if an A or H-bomb falls on the nation's congested centers of population.

He believes that New Hampshire will become a "shelter area," primarily for Boston and the industrial cities of Connecticut in case of atomic war.

First of all, I don't want to frighten or excite people any more than they already are," said Mr. O'Neil. "But we must be ready for any contingency." On this basis, Mr. O'Neil is exploring the idea that civilian defense in his state may have its beginning in underground garages to care for both local and refugee populations.

This man who served in the Army in World War I and with the Navy in World War II believes the problem at the moment includes four main categories: Shelter, food, medical aid and traffic.

Shelter must be provided in vast quantity. Food must be stockpiled in like degree. Doctors, nurses and civilians must be trained to care for refugees suffering atomic ills.

NEW HAMPSHIRE is already planning to send two physicians to Rochester, N. Y., to take courses in atomic medicine now available there. Two New Hampshire engineers are already at the Brookhaven laboratories on Long Island studying problems in radioactivity at this government center.

The doctors and engineers will come home when their courses are complete and begin at once to organize local classes in the same subjects. And before long, Mr. O'Neil expects to attend a New England meeting called to consider the whole problem of civilian defense in that area.

He is already trying to locate all the portable lighting plants, such as those used by carnivals and tent shows, in New Hampshire. They will be invaluable if war should knock out the chief power plants in that area.

The traffic jam that would glut the highways of New England if bombs were to fall in its big industrial centers is one of the biggest problems that Mr. O'Neil and other civilian defense leaders must attempt to solve.

Already, Mr. O'Neil is taking a census of all trucking firms, big and little, in New Hampshire.

"We must take a realistic view," he said. "It is conceivable that our air fields would be destroyed and our rail system knocked out then trucks would be invaluable."

4-H Clubs

Stitch and Chatter

Mothers of the members will be guests at a meeting of the Stitch and Chatter Club at 7:30 p. m. Friday, in Perry grange hall, Franklin st.

Mrs. Homer Ferguson, guest speaker, will demonstrate the proper way to fit and alter a pattern. Refreshments will be served by the advisors, Mrs. Perry Hilliard, Mrs. R. C. Kilbreath and Mrs. George Hawkins.

Because of the growth in membership of this 12-year-old club, the advisors have divided it into two groups—senior and junior. Mrs. Hilliard and Mrs. Kilbreath will advise the senior group, which is comprised of the dressmaker members, while Mrs. George Hawkins will advise the junior sewers.

Mrs. Hilliard has been advisor of this club for 12 years, while Mrs. Kilbreath and Mrs. Hawkins have held their posts for seven years. Mrs. Kilbreath was a member of the Farmer 4-H Club when it was organized, thus giving her 12 years of club work, too.

The Stitch and Chatter Club is proud of a perfect record of 11 years. This means that they have completed certain requirements in their work.

Mrs. Hawkins organized the club, although she was unable to take part in its activities for five years. Mrs. Hilliard was her assistant.

Questions and Answers
Q—What is the difference between adjourning and recessing Congress?
A—When Congress takes a recess it sets a date for reconvening. When it adjourns it does not reconvene until the next regular session or until called by the President.
